

SOCIETY FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC EDUCATION / EASTERN REGION

The Eastern Regional Meeting of the Society for Photographic Education was held at George Eastman House, Rochester, New York, on November 24 & 25, 1967.

At the meeting it was decided to establish six sub-regional groups to further increase communication between persons concerned with photographic education.

The six sub-regions are: Upper New York State; New York City; New England; the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington area; Canada; and the South.

The Society for Photographic Education was formed in 1963 to promote high standards in photographic education and in the art of photography.

It now has 200 members affiliated with colleges, schools, museums, publications, and other areas.

Chairman of the Board is Robert Forth, Dean of the Maryland Institute.

Chairman of the Eastern Region is Nathan Lyons, Associate Director and Curator of Photography, George Eastman House.
